THE FEATH SENTENCE OF "DR!" CKIPPUN:

ANOTHER DESCRIPTIVE REPORT.

The Mirning Lander of the 2.th ultimo contoins the following account of the solemn of the death sentence on "Dr." Crippen :--

It was the last phase. The glaom of a dull October afternoon bad meda early twilight in the Court, wherein Justice, with even hand, was holding the scales. White faces looked down upon the scene from the gallers; white faces peered below. Row upon low of people -tense, eager, thrilled-watched the moving drama, and waited breathless for the enapping of the single hair that hold the sword.

Lord Alvoratone was finishing his summingup. It was a carefully weighed sonorous spreal to the British jary who ant before him is various attitudes of strained attention. His final passages rang clerr, I ke a bell; hey

LEFT NO DOUBT . . . behind them. They were scrupulously fair, as befits the Lord Chief Justice of England; but they were damning and terrible. Could there be any d'ubt of tha'?

In the half-light of the sutumn afternoon Dr. Crippen's meagre little figure seemed to be shrinking, shrinking; and though his face made no sign, he must have known.

A FRELING OF AWE.

The minutes flew. Had an hour passed I ke a handful of seconds; and then the jury came back, walking softly on tip too to their appointed places, as though they were fearful of disturbing something. Their faces were hard and set Self-conscious and nervous, their eyes were cast down, and they were ill at ease."

The judge came in and took lis reat, He was followed by the chaplain-a tall, spiezdid figure cfa man with silver bair that sh!mmered as the fairy light in the domed roof were flashed on. The Clerk of Arraigns stood up and turned to the foreman of the jury.

"Are you agreed upon your verdict, gentle men?" he asked, and the e was a sudder hush in Court.

"We are," was the reply. "Do you find---"

Lord Alversions held up his hand "Where sthe prisoner?" he said,

The dock was empty ! "Bring Dr. Crippen up at cace," ordered the judge, sternly,

There was a scuffie down below, the scund of quick, muffled volces, and Dr. Crippen was whisked up just as he bai been whisked down 30 minutes before. He almost ra . to the front of the dock, and sat hastily in his chair at the very moment the foreman uttered the fateful word, "GUILTY !

The two worders at his right and left hauled him up, with a hand t pon each arm, and there he stood, blinking, but steady as a rock, whilst the chaplain fumbled nervously for the black cap-fumbled and failed to find it, so that the Lord Chief Justice must needs put it in his hand.

Then, and then only, as the fall clergyman bent to adjust the somble emblem of death, did the murderer blench, and bow his head At last the chord had been struck! There was one poignant moment for the miserable little man-a dreadful moment; and the blast of it struck him fu'l. Twice he was asked if he had asything to say; and when at last he spoke it was a brave effort at the unconcern he fought to mai tain to the end. The words ran tegether like the speech of a drunken man-'- 1 still. maintain that I cm innecept !" Three times LAM LUNG AMATEUR DRAMATIC he nodded his head.

JUDGE'S TERRIBLE WORDS.

There was almost a definat flash from behind the gold-rimmed spectacles. It seemed to say, "I will die game I"-and the fiail figure. so trim in its dandy freck coat, st ffene i for the shattering climax.

For once the imposing dignity of the Lord Chief Justice as judge was lest in the emotion of the Lord Chief Justice as a simple human bring like the test of us, with a heart to feel and a mind to realise the deletal tra edy of the situation. His voice broke and quavered as he said :-

" The ghasily and wicked nature of the crime will not dwell upon. I only tell you that you must extertain no expectation or hope of escape from the consequences of your orlme, and for the last time I implore you to make your peace with Almighty God."

The sen'ence followed, ringing like a knell through the Court. With bowed head the chaplain whispered "Amen [" and the two great warders swung the prisoner' round so suddenly (for he is a mere feather of a man in such a grip) that he was out of sight in a flath. His coat-tails whirled as he went down.

THE EXICUTION.

Tho sentence, which was carried out in o thick fog, occupied, according to the evidence at the inquest, o ly sixty seconds from the time the executioner cutered the cell until the death of the condemned man.

The preparations were carried out qu'etly in order not to disturb Crippes, as his quarters were only a few steps from the scaffold shed. He retired to rest

PRISONBRS OF WAR,

The Schwarzt it Zeitung published at Halls describes the tragedy of two German soldiers who, taken prisoners of war in the Franco German campaign of 1870 were, afterwards forgotten, and have been languishing in captivity for forty years. They were slightly wounded in battle, and were cap'ured and conveyed with other prisoners of war to France. Here, for some unknown reason, they became soparated from the other princers of war, who in accordance with all civilised tradition were seleased and sent back to Golmany after the conclusion of peace.

The two unfo.tunates became somehow classified as common criminals, a.d were deported to French Guiana where they remained in a penal settlement ever since. After forty 'ye ra' captivity, they were released for continuous good conduct, and have now succeeded in working their way homewards Both were mar. led men, a d both found their wives alivebut one of them had married again four years ago. The other had been a sorrowing widow for four decades.

The Schmarst il Zeltung states the a report on the strange case will be laid before the German Government in order that a claim for compensation may be made to the French Gov-

A SILLY SAYING. 4 It is a common but silly opinion prevailing among a certain class of people that the worse a remedy tastes, smells or hurts, the more efficacious it is." So says a well-known English physician. He further adds: "For example, let us consider cod liver oil. As it is extracted from the fish this oil is so offensive to the taste and smell that almost everybody abhors it, and many cannot use it at all, no matter how badly they need it. Yet cod liver. oil is one of the most valuable drugs in the world, and it is the greatest pity that we have not thus far been able to free it from those peculiarities which so seriously interfere with its usefulness." This was written years ago the work of civilizing and redeeming it how ever bes since been triumphantly accom plished; and as a leading ingredient in the

THE SHIPPING CONFERENCE.

Some little while ago we took occasion to refer to a new measure of legislation regarding shipping which was about to be cuacted in the Straits Settlements and which had a distinct bearing upon the tradal life of Honkkong in the sense that any law imposed in the Straits Settlements is apt to find its way up here as a practical force. In certain matters connected with shipping, Hongkong has led the way so far as the laying down of regulations is concerned; and to cite one people know their own business best. instance, it was the " Hongkong Telegraph" the massing into law of the enactment which prohibited Sunday labour on Huropean vessels lying in our Roads This law has been adopted in every Crown Colony and it stands good at present. But now, the Singapore Government-is obsessed of the idea, apparently, that it must make up its depleted revenue-shorn of opium dues-by some means or other, and the first object which it undertakes to put a tax upon is the industry which constitutes the Colony's backbone. The present Governor, Sir John Anderson, is an eminent financier and he has in the Legislature many good spund the "Licensed Victuallets' Gazette" an artiadvisers, both Chinese and Buropeans, in cle denunicatory of the use of alcoholic whom he can repose entire trust. In pursuance of this object, Government-had held interviews with representatives of the Conference out here and had endeavoured to arrange a basis upon which negotiations might be entered into between Government and the Conference. The result had been forwarded to the conference managers at home and to the Colonial Office, the result being that subject to this basis Government was prepared at the desire of the Conference to enter into negotiations. The political situation at home had doubtless interfered with a speedy decision, but the Government received from the Secretary of State intimation that the Conference was prepared to consider the abolition of this 5 per cent. special commission in future agreements, and to negotiate gen should be accompanied by the Writer's Name and erally on the situation if the Governor could how much tex and coffee each individual arrange to see them for that purpose. became necessary to exempt the Colony for the time from the operation of the Ordinance No doubt many would blame the Governmen and tell it that, notwithstanding its fine words, it was after all afraid of the Conference and was climbing down. He was not prepared to admit Government was afraid, but he would admit that Government would prefer to see a friendly arrangement by which the Colony would still have the assistance of the splendid fleet of steamers now calling any extra charge. On copies sent by post at there, while at the same time there would be sufficent rough, cheap cargo to attract to the wharves many steamers which are now daily passing our gates because there is nothing for them if they call. Government did not wish to drive away the Conference ships, because it recognised that they provided a firstclass service of steamers and were invaluable to the trade of the Colony. But they would not allow them to take possession of our ports and to cry hands off to any steamer outside their own ring which may venture to approach the port. The ports of this Colony are free ports, and this Government is determined that they shall be really free, and that every steamer which desires to come in shall be welcome and that every merchant shall be free to ship his produce by any steamer, or in any way which he thinks fit, without dictation from anyone." All of which is very fine reading. The point which Mr. I vans first of all disregards is exercise of a police power is wholly within that in the shipping trade there are numer. its jurisdiction. Amongst Western nations, however, there is a constantly increasing class of the people who have become slaves of the tea and coffee habit-in fact," tea and coffee topers "---and who are as much (if not more) to be commiserated as the unfortunate man or woman who succumbs to alcoholism or the drug habit. As Dr. Wiley admits, a grown person has a right to choose his own food, but he advises caution in the use of tea and coffee. The moment a man feels that he is becoming a slave to either he should call a halt. If giving up tea or coffee produces malaise, headache, incapacity for work, and a general disturbance of the health, the vic. physique. tim may know that he has gone too far. I is, of course, quite impossible to prescribe be left to his own choice. There are a great stances contained in tea and coffee. Most active of these substances by far is the alkaloid caffein. Anyone who studies the alcohol problem cannot fail to realise that the demand for Prohibition has arisen because of the failure more or less of measures directed towards restriction. From a commercial point of view it is highly important that tea and coffee sliould be so used as to work no injury. If, on the other hand, they are abused so as to threaten the health of a community, there is no valid reason why the community should not prohibit their infroduction and sale, since the

THE ORDISAL BY FIRE.

AS SIRN IN SINGAPORE,

Says the Straits Times of the 22nd alt The origin of the Hindu Theamiri-the ceremony of fire-walking that was performed in the principal temple of the cult yesterday-may be found in one of those epic poems that are at once the inspiration and the glary of Hinduism. During one of the immemorable wars from which the religion seems to have sprang, a certain goddess, a fle.h and blood one, was captured by the enemy. Many moons fater she returned to her own people and the first question they asked was -was she still chaste? The lady protes'ed that she was, but, to test the verity of the statement, somebody conceived the idea of making her walk through fire. If she came out unscathed the truth of her chastliy, was establ shed; if she didn't -. Anyhow, she came through scatheless and to this day the passage through the fire is a test of the zial of the perfervid Hinda.

LIFE WITHOUT HEALTH IS LIVING DEATH.

This remarkable compound, the latest discovery of modern times, is without equal in all cases of defective nerve and brain power, whether induced by worry, overwork, dissipation, or other influences. Sieepiessness, palpitation, defective circulation, nervous dyspepsia, the or neuralgia, low spirits, mental and bodily prostration, want of confidence, general debility, premature decay or deficiency of the vital forces, loss of vitality, harassing dreams, restlessness that can settle to nothing, irritability of temper, female complaints, hysteria, backache, bearing down sensations, wasting diseases, consumption, night sweats, muddy, high-coloured water, &c., are all so many different phases of brain and nerve wreckage and exhaustion, the cause of by far the greater portion of the misery, ill-health, and despondency by which we are confronted on every hand, that can only be successfully combated by the use of this wonderful and highly scientific preparation. Bracing up the system generally, it gives tone to the exhausted nerves, arrests all weakening wasting discharges, restores the failing energies, and imparts new life and vigour to those who had so recently seemed played out, used up and valueless. Bottles Price 28, 3d. had so recently seemed played out, used up and valueless. Bottles Price 28, 9d.

WITHOUT PURE BLOOD HEALTH IS IMPOSSIBLE. BLOOD

Never before was there anything like it, nor can its marvellous properties ever be equalled in all cases of poorness, impurity, or other imperfection of the blood from whatever cause arising. No sooner is it imbibed into the system than it permentes and penetrates to the minutest capillaries, overcoming and expelling disease, wheresoever and in whatsoever form met with; removing all blotches, pimples, scurf, scurvy, scrolulous and glandular swellings, discolorations, roughness, and unalghtly patches, &c. Its effects are simpst magical in the treatment of gout, rheumatism, relation, lumbago, pains and swellings of the joints, discharges, blood poison, ecsems, leprs, psoriasis, bad legs, bad breasts, abscesses, ulcers, wounds, sores, goltre or Derbyshire neck, it improves the general health, and quickly removes long-standing bloochitis, asthma, and hacking, straining, spasmodic cough, too often the precursor of consumption. Bottles Price 22, Bd.

Send stamped addressed envelope for free booklet, or P.O. 2/9 for trial bottle of either memody, to THE VETARZO REMEDIES CO., GOSPEL OAK, LONDON. Unprincipled Vendore may try to sell you something else for extra profit—do not accept it, but insist on having VETARZO. The genuine has the words "VETARZO REMEDIES" on Government Stamp.
